

Migdalia Gonzalez

Migdalia Gonzalez is the Hispanic Employment Program Manager at the Federal Aviation Administration's (FAA) Office of Civil Rights. She works to develop relationships with external and internal partners. She serves as the program advisor and consultant to management on outreach initiatives with a focus on the Hispanic community. Prior to her joining the FAA, she was the Supervisory Training Officer at the US Dept. of Housing and Urban Development's Office of Housing. She managed a team dedicated to the execution and delivery of employee career/leadership initiatives. Migdalia also served as a Housing Recovery lead when disasters occurred helping individuals and families impacted by disasters obtain the services they need. She implemented and executed various initiatives throughout the country resulting in receiving the "Gears of Government" Award.

Preceding public sector service, Migdalia held several senior level positions in the real estate and mortgage industries. She was a Vice President at Bank of America where she facilitated national initiatives to expand homeownership for emerging markets. In addition, Migdalia is responsible for creating the first Latino-owned real estate Franchise, UNIcasa Franchising where she served as the Vice President for Business Development.

She is a master trainer and motivational speaker. She has delivered training to both the public and private sector organizations such as the USDA, DOJ, HUD, CBP/DHS, and LULAC- Federal Training Institute to name a few. She is committed to the development of others to create a more diverse and inclusive community for all.