

Oscar Antonio Torres currently presides as the 16th President of the National Hispanic Coalition of Federal Aviation Employees (NHCFEA). With a robust membership exceeding 500 professionals nationwide, including U.S. territories. The NHCFEA collaborates closely with the Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) to advocate for and elevate FAA and aviation career opportunities within our local communities and at Minority Serving Institutions.

A graduate of Vaughn College of Aeronautics & Technology, Oscar Initiated his federal tenure in 2007. Oscar continues to serve the flying public as an air traffic controller and Instructor in the Atlanta Enroute Air Traffic Control Center.

